Subject: Peace Aweentioni for ACRES

John,

Great talking with you over the phone.

Can you verify for us the word for Peace in Miami tongue.

Aweentioni ? and curious where the word Pehkokia comes from, it turns up on a google search.

We want to name one of our newest preserves in Huntington Co. with this meaning. This is the one behind the Walmart off 24.

We also purchase 53 acres from the Historic Forks of the Wabash adjacent to the actual confluence which we are naming Little River Landing.

SAVE THE DATES - if you guys wanted to be present at each of the openings for these preserves it would be an honor.

Aweentioni Preserve – not set yet, but sometime in July or August

Little River Landing – Sat. May 21st, from 2-4
